Profile

Robert commenced his legal career as Associate to Justice Hill on the Federal Court of Australia (1990 – 1991). He then worked as a solicitor at Freehills (now Herbert Smith Freehills) between 1991 and 1996 before joining the Bar in 1996. Robert was appointed Senior Counsel in 2009. Robert practises widely in commercial law matters including trials, appeals and arbitrations.

Robert has appeared as Counsel in many leading cases and appeals including the Firebird/Republic of Nauru proceedings in the High Court (Foreign State Immunity/International Law), the Ha/Walter Hammond proceedings in the High Court (Commonwealth duties of excise and business franchise licence fees), the Roxborough litigation in the Federal and High Court (restitution of licence fees), the Fostif proceedings (litigation funding and class actions), the NAB/Idoport litigation (contracts, insolvency, litigation funding), the Ingot Capital proceedings (prospectus, misleading and deceptive conduct, causation, damages); the United Medical Protection proceedings (medical insurance, Commonwealth indemnity, provisional liquidation, winding up); and defending the proceedings brought by ASIC against Citigroup (insider trading, fiduciary relationships, conflicts of interest) and against the directors and officers of the James Hardie Group (directors' duties and civil penalties).

Robert has also appeared in a number of major Commissions of Inquiry including the Royal Commission into Misconduct in the Banking, Superannuation and Financial Services Industries, the ICAC public hearings for Operations Jasper and Acacia and the Equine Influenza Inquiry; and in significant Public Examinations such as the One Tel and recent Arrium examinations.
